BUSINESS BOWS TO GOVERNMENT

Washington Too Paternal to Suit Everybody

Politics Has Much to do With the Stock Market

Congress Doesn't Stay Long Enough for Knowledge

BY C. B. EVANS

(Copyright, 1932, Public Ledger.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—The government has nearly succeeded in caving big business. J. Ogden Armour wants to form a combination with his corporation and Morris & Co. and he goes to Washington to ask mamma about it. Others who have contemplated similar improvements in the administration of business just venture to the outskirts of Washington power conferring with the Federal Trade Commission or somebody that might dare to interpret the probable decision of that body. The person who wants to do anything a little out of the ordinary and who hears some unusual sound, looks about him afraid that the United States may be in his vicinity in some invisible form, watching him.

In the deep of the night this same ogre disturbs the man's brain and he has considerable self-control if he does not kick the bed clothes off.

It was always so. Formerly the leader went ahead on their own initiative and if afterward they were legally licked because they inadvertently got on the wrong side of some fine line they took the licking good naturedly. If successfully attacked by the government, their business was disintegrated and they went ahead, with the aggregated portions, making more money than ever. But they did something.

INDIVIDUAL COMPARISON

There were giants in those days—old Vanderbilt, who initiated our present great railroad system, later on Jim Hill, and if you please, John W. Gates. Compare La Follette with these men. Has he done anything but carry the politics of Wisconsin in his pocket? Yes, he has done something, one performance being the sea-man's act, and now we are wondering if we are going to have a merchant marine.

The stock market—barometer of all business—sees these things and while its prices had no doubt been pushed up too high and a reaction was due, the political aspect in this country has much effect on that market and is destined to make a deep impression on the minds of enterprising men in the creative and distributive interests if present tendencies go on, including the filing away of enterprises in the pigeon-holes of various bureaus.

Some of the brokers do not completely grasp this part of the picture. One of them, sitting on his blackboard today and, partly in words and partly in manner, he demanded: "What all you? You are looking more in quotations in thirty days than you gained in six months," which was something of an exaggeration, but full of meaning. Then he turned especially to the railroad list and remarked: "I wonder if Congress is going to ruin or preserve the prosperity of our great transportation lines." A reply was that the government, for a long time, having been in the picture, was not going to ruin or preserve anything.

CONGRESS LEARNS, BUT—Does not Congress learn anything? One inquired.

Yes, Congress does learn something, but you must remember that body is not a continuing entity. Intelligent individuals learn through an experience of seventy years, but a Congress never runs to the age of seventy years or half or a quarter of that period. It is constantly recruited from the domain of the half-baked and thus its intelligence is diminished from time to time, and it commonly functions as an amateur in any affair with which it has to do. Therefore you cannot apply the same tests that you would to an individual, who normally grows in wisdom from year to year through experience.

The same is true of the body of administrative officials, most of whom have to learn their business after they get into it, except those portions which belong to all business.

The consequence is the inferior work which we commonly expect from government as compared with the best in private life. But the worst of it is that with a good mentality, coming to Washington in a Congress, man or other participant in the function of determining the country's course goes along a lot of prejudices or fixed opinions created in the narrow circle of the man's previous existence. These prejudices are naturally turned against the most conspicuous objects in sight and the railroads and other great utilities suffer in consequence. But that in the aggregate these men have power is shown by the sacred condition of the corporation man.

BRADSTREET'S WEEKLY BUSINESS REVIEW

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

Nov. 24.—Bradstreet's business review.

Little change in the aggregate of activities, trade as a whole being satisfactory, but a definite shifting of activity from the distribution to the jobbing and retail branches is in evidence this week. For this, the weather in many western districts, the growth in bettering and the advance of the winter clothing trade were mainly responsible. A good deal of activity in the jobbing and retail branches was caused by the fact that many of the winter clothing stores were in the hands of the jobbing and retail branches. The advance of the winter clothing trade was mainly responsible for the shift in activity.

Federal Reserve Condition; International Financing; Bonds; Business News

Substantial decreases in bills discounted, including those secured by government obligations and all others, and an increase in the ratio of reserves to deposits and note liabilities are the notable features disclosed by the latest Federal Reserve Bank statement.

The decrease in bills discounted from the previous week amounts to $35,614,000, which indicates that business is not calling upon the banks for as much liquid working funds as has been supposed. This conclusion is verified by the increase in the Federal reserve bank ratio of 1.5 per cent, showing that the drift of funds into industry and business is not great enough as yet to diminish reserves.

The accumulation of gold in the bank vaults of this country is still progressing. Total gold reserves of the Federal reserve banks increased $14,477,000 during the week, and the aggregate amount now stands at $2,083,325,000. Total reserves, including gold and legal tender, silver advanced $1,523,000.

Federal Reserve banks bought $15,493,000 bills less in the open market than in the preceding week. At the same time, the total holdings of bills decreased $45,103,000. Total resources of the system were diminished $192,415,000, while Federal Reserve notes in actual circulation declined $21,523,000.

HOOVER TO SPEAK OVER KHJ, "TIMES" RADIO, 6 P.M. SUNDAY

Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce and commander-in-chief of American radio, will speak at 6 o'clock p.m. tomorrow over KHJ, The Times Radiophone Times Building. Broadcast with the full power of this gigantic radio station behind it, the voice of the master of radio will be readily audible in nearly every part of the United States. A number of Mr. Hoover's friends and colleagues in the cabinet will gather at a receiving station in Washington, D. C. to hear him. Every big radio station in the country will receive the address and a number are making arrangements to rebroadcast it. Not less than 2,000,000 people, it is estimated, will hear Mr. Hoover's voice from KHJ.

Herbert C. Hoover

Mr. Hoover and his party will arrive here Sunday morning from Santa Fe, where he has been conducting the hearings on the Colorado River problem. He will leave for San Francisco Sunday evening, but will return within a week or so, it is expected, to be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon in his honor.

POLICE HUNT GIRL GONE THREE DAYS

Left Home for Work and Has Not Been Seen Since,
Her Mother Asserts

Distracted with worry over the absence of her 15-year-old daughter, whom she believed kidnapped, Mrs. Lulu Burgoyne, 331 North Bonnie Brae street, last night requested police to investigate the disappearance of the girl.

Maggie Burgoyne, employed in a restaurant at 121 West Second street, has been missing since last Wednesday night. She left home Wednesday saying she was going to work but according to other employees she failed to appear.

The mother told the police she believed the girl either had been kidnapped and spirited away, or is being held against her will somewhere in the city. Maggie had been keeping company with Alvin "Older", sailor aboard the U.S.S. Connecticut, for two months. He is assisting Mrs. Burgoyne in the search.

The missing girl is about five feet tall, has light-brown hair and gray eyes. When last seen she wore a black hat, green cape, green sweater, brown skirt and black patent-leather pumps.

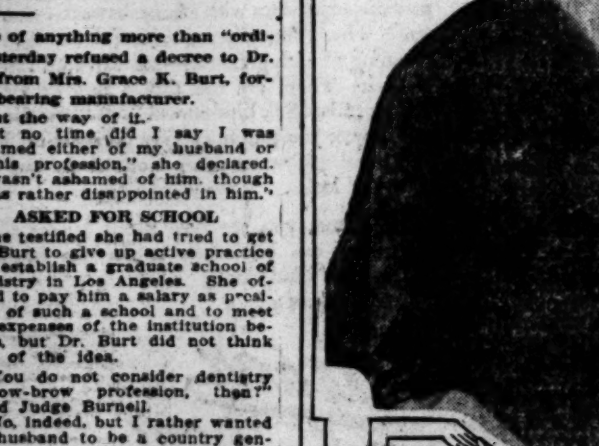

Walter Hiers
May Sub for
"Wally" Reid

Walter Hiers probably will be chosen for the lead in the Famous Players-Lasky Film Corporation picture, "Mr. Billings Spends His Days," in the place of Wallace Reid.

It is understood that the Lasky Corporation has notified Wallace Reid, who is ill, that unless he is able to start work on the picture by next Tuesday a substitute will have to be employed. "Wally" already has been forced by his illness to turn over the lead in "Nobody's Money" to Jack Holt.

The picture, "Mr. Billings Spends His Days," was to be begun on Monday but on account of Reid's illness will be held up at least one day.

Long Suffering Ends in Death

Mrs. Florence V. Hunsaker

Mrs. Hunsaker, who died yesterday morning, had been ill for almost eighteen months. Her death was not unexpected, for recently her physicians had announced that she was suffering from arteriosclerosis and that her recovery was not probable. Death coming at 7:15 a.m., found members of the family prepared for the shock. They had been told several days ago that her condition was critical and that the end was near.

DEATH KEENLY FELT

News of her passing, however, brings grief to scores and yesterday numerous messages of sympathy and condolence were received at the Hunsaker home from friends scattered throughout California and the Southwest. Men and women high in political, financial, social and club life sent expressions of their sorrow.

Justice Shifts to High and Gains Speed

Establishes New Record for Sentences

Prepares to Increase Time in Prison

The drive on speeders and reckless drivers inaugurated by Justice Chambers five days ago swung into high yesterday, carrying forty-nine additional offenders motorists to jail and setting a new record for the number of persons sentenced in one day.

Sentences yesterday ranged from two to thirty days, the court apparently convinced that the one-day jail periods meted out to many motorists at the beginning of the drive have failed in the salutary effect desired.

As a result of the campaign 131 men and women are behind the bars in the city jails or have served their terms and been discharged from custody. Justice Chambers indicated yesterday that there will be no let-up in the campaign. In fact, he declared, that stiffer sentences will be imposed on motorists brought into his court in the future unless the speed mania take the lesson to heart.

A total of 148 days in jail was given fourteen speeders and reckless drivers yesterday by Justices Chambers and Frederickson. Fred Biggs and Charles Rowley each drew sixty days. Biggs was arrested Thursday after a collision at San Pedro and Ninth streets. When his case came up it was learned that he had served seventy-five days on the same charge about eight months ago.

Rowley received his sixty days for a collision at North Main and Griffin streets, when he struck a car driven by Mrs. Emma C. Anshutz, 4203 South Flower street.

INCREASED TERMS

Justice Chambers said that unless there is a noticeable lessening of speeding the jail terms will increase in severity and the drive will continue until the offenders learn to keep their "feet off the throttle."

Despite the increase in the number sentenced yesterday, the court calendar completely filled with speed cases. Court was adjourned yesterday with thirty cases still to be heard and fifteen convicted speeders awaiting sentences. These will be assigned to their cells today.

TO APPEAL

Seven convicted speeders yesterday either gave notice of appeal or demanded a jury trial. Three of these men have served one day of their sentences but came into court yesterday morning to file motions of appeal.

Those who gave notice of appeal or asked for jury trials are M. S. Hotchkiss, Herman Egge, C. A. Dore, C. A. Grissel, P. A. Casady, E. E. Olson and Lester H. Miller. They posted $500 bail and their cases assigned to Department Two of the Police Court, where they will be tried next month.

SHUN PEPPY DIET, ADVICE TO SPEEDER

Too Much Mustard Leads to Trouble, Says Savant;
Diet Cures All Woes

Discovered—the cure for speeding!

Not jail sentences nor stiff fines nor stern admonitions by judges can check the evil, but diet!

Does your right foot feel droopy as it approaches the accelerator of your Philco-Power? Lay off potatoes. Are you seized by an irresistible desire to spin madly along smooth boulevards? Take the wicked exhortation of your daily menu. Do you yearn at intersections to equal Barney Oldfield's record? Forswear the exciting tomato.

If you correct your diet according to the prescription given yesterday to Deputy City Prosecutor John Concanon by Wilmot H. Wheeler, you will be troubled no more by speed mania. Wheeler paid a special call on Deputy Concanon to inform him that the reckless eating of exciting and stimulating foods caused automobilists to exceed the speed limit.

"Wheeler," who lives at 2120 Ewing street, carries on his card the legend "Life, Liberty and Happiness and the Art of Thinking Correctly."

COOKING

Wheeler, who died yesterday morning, had been ill for almost eighteen months. Her death was not unexpected, for recently her physicians had announced that she was suffering from arteriosclerosis and that her recovery was not probable. Death coming at 7:15 a.m., found members of the family prepared for the shock. They had been told several days ago that her condition was critical and that the end was near.

DEATH KEENLY FELT

News of her passing, however, brings grief to scores and yesterday numerous messages of sympathy and condolence were received at the Hunsaker home from friends scattered throughout California and the Southwest. Men and women high in political, financial, social and club life sent expressions of their sorrow.

For forty-four years Mrs. Hunsaker had lived in California and most of that time was spent in Los Angeles. Born in Maiden, Va., in 1855, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. William Blair McFarland, she went to San Diego in 1878. There she married the Rev. and Mrs. William Hunsaker, now the senior member of the firm of Hunsaker, Britt and Conner, noted attorneys. In 1892 the Hunsakers came to Los Angeles to make their home and here Mrs. Hunsaker became widely known for her interest in church, charitable and club affairs.

ACTIVE CLUB WORKER

She was a member of the Episcopal Church and for many years, her interest in the church was an active worker in the Friday Morning Club and the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Since her husband she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Rose Steinhilber, 446 West Adams street, and Mrs. Mary Brill, 417 South Mariposa street, and one son, Daniel M. Hunsaker, a member of the firm which his father heads. Two sisters, Mrs. Lucy W. Miller and Mrs. Robert Hutton, resided at Lake Valley, N. M., and Cattletsburg, Ky., respectively. A third daughter, Florence Kling Hunsaker, died Jan. 27-28 of this year.

SANTA FE WINS HARBOR RIGHT

Council Approves Request for Extension

Seven Vote for and Two
Against Measure

City Attorney is Ordered to Draw Franchise

The long efforts of the Santa Fe to secure from the City Council permission to extend its railroad line from El Segundo to Los Angeles Harbor came to a successful conclusion yesterday afternoon when the Council, by a vote of 7 to 2, agreed upon the terms of the franchise and instructed the city attorney to prepare it.

When the franchise is prepared and presented, within the next ten days or two weeks, it is taken for granted from yesterday's vote that the same seven Councilmen will formally approve of it, and thus the long battle, which began last July when the Santa Fe filed its application for the franchise, will be over.

The extension will bring to Los Angeles Harbor, steamship lines, docks and industries, a great transcontinental railroad and enable numerous inland cities and industries along the line of the Santa Fe to ship through Los Angeles Harbor.

ROLL CALL

The Councilmen voting for the franchise were Councilmen Allan Conaway, Langdon, McFarland, Musher, Sanborn and Wheeler. (1.) Those opposing were President Criswell and Councilman Sparks. (2.)

Councilmen Conaway and Wheeler secured an eleventh-hour concession from the Santa Fe in addition to those previously granted by Councilman Sanborn which brought these Councilmen to vote for the franchise. This was an agreement by the Santa Fe to shift the route of the proposed extension so that the rails will not cross the present harbor line leading to Bixby Slough, adjacent to the West Basin, so that in the future should this privately owned land be developed as a part of the harbor the rails will not be in the path of the connecting channel from the basin to the slough.

The usual request for more delay in the Santa Fe matter was made yesterday, this time by M. A. Shuster, who said he represented property owners along Bixby Slough, who asked that action be delayed for two weeks. The Councilmen, evidently believing that the Santa Fe had encountered enough delays, proceeded to vote.

MANY APPEAL

While the remaining Council formalities are being completed according to schedule, these including the formal offering of the franchise for sale and its being bought by a party, the speech to the Council yesterday of Attorney Edward Massee, representing the Oakleys, owners of Bixby Slough, was a part of the granting of the application, indicated that the Oakleys may appeal to the courts and attack the franchise there.

President Criswell in his speech said that while the railroad had important concessions to reduce train movements on Bixby Slough, which will be the right-of-way for harbor-bound traffic, they will remain the objections of the Oakleys to the right-of-way through Bixby Slough, and President Criswell predicted that if the franchise were finally given to the Santa Fe, the Oakleys would sue to stop the franchise.

Councilman Mallory, who presided at the beginning of the Council session, said that the franchise, which was granted yesterday, was a long delay, offering the following motion which was seconded by Councilman Allan:

THE RESOLUTION

"That the City Attorney be instructed to prepare and present to this Council a notice of sale, offering for sale a franchise following the route as set forth in petition heretofore filed with the Santa Fe and Harbor Railway Company (as amended to include the change hereinafter mentioned) upon the terms and conditions of sale, to be determined by the chairman of the Public Utilities Committee of the City Council in his report read to the Council on Nov. 21, 1922, with the further understanding that the Santa Fe and Harbor Railway Company will amend said application heretofore made in such a manner that their proposed line at the intersection of San Pedro and Wilmington Road shall be shifted so that their tracks will not interfere with that arm of the harbor which may be described as the northern corner of the present north arc of the west basin at the Los Angeles Harbor, leading to Bixby Slough and in preparing said notice of sale the City Attorney is instructed to include the recommendations of the City Engineer, the Board of Public Utilities, and the agreements which have been signed and heretofore read to this Council in connection with this matter."

The Federal Interstate Commerce Commission has already approved of the Santa Fe's application to build the extension, and the State Railroad Commission will do the same. Immediately upon the filing with the commission of a copy of the franchise granted by the City.

RARE PROGRAM
FOR KHJ FANS"Times" Listeners-in Get DiversityMusical Numbers Given in Artistic FashionNine-Year-Old Boy Pleases
Little Ones

These qualities which have cemented the friendship of the complex radio family to KHJ, stood out prominently in yesterday's broadcast from The Times radio. Making an appeal to the masses requires diversity, since tastes differ so widely, and arranging two hours and forty-five minutes of radio entertainment daily presents an interesting study in human nature which cannot be ignored.

Any attempt to please all listeners would be fruitless, as KHJ religiously tries to arrange its programs as to include features which will earn approval of the greatest number. Yesterday a whistler, juvenile singer, coloratura soprano, tenor, pianist, and a quartet were put on the air during the three-hour concert program.

In the feature concert of the day, the 8 to 9:30 period, Marjorie Grindhold, coloratura soprano, offered a variety of selections, ranging from light opera to the heart songs which live on indefinitely. Her "Barcarolle" from "Tales of Hoffman," by Offenbach, with violin obligato by Edward Vandrouk, and piano accompaniment by Grace Jamison, who also accompanied in three other songs, was a fine exemplification of her ability and artistic conception.

MASTERFUL TOUCH
She gives to her songs the touch of the master artist and it is at once apparent that she feels the motif which inspired the composers to write the scores she sings.

C. Howard Paxton, whose tenor solos have won the unqualified approval of radioland, and whose vocal quality is a known quality both among the musical fraternity and listeners-in as well, won the plaudits of an invisible audience last night with four superb numbers which he sang to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. C. Howard Paxton. Rich and clear, vibrant and appealing, Mr. Paxton's voice is an inspiration, and his clear diction insures every word of his songs reaching the listener with clarity that loses nothing in its flight from KHJ to the most remote reaches of the station.

Eddie Horton, organist and pianist at the Kinema Theater, who work from KHJ presages a deluge of requests for more and high praise for his piano solos that favored listeners last night with a group of selections which were distinctly Horton. Horton's conception of piano interpretation for radio is distinctly individual. Clear, concise, intended to give a precise effect, his style is so well known to the radio listener that it is no stretch of the imagination to predict that his playing might be done from KHJ without his name being announced and thousands would at once recognize the distinctive nature of his interpretation and automatically know it is Horton playing.

EDUCATOR
SUES FOR
DAMAGESSchool Head Hit by Mrs.
Bagnall's Charges Wants
$15,000 for Libel

Dr. Ernest J. Lickley, assistant superintendent of schools, recently the target of Mrs. E. Bagnall of 1734 West Fifty-eighth street, for sensational charges, yesterday sued Mrs. Bagnall for libel, asking $5000 actual and $10,000 punitive damages.

In a letter sent to the Board of Education, under date of the 22nd inst., and published in The Times, which is specifically mentioned in the complaint prepared by Attorney Joseph Scott, Mrs. Bagnall states that certain persistent reports of conditions in the special schools of the city have come to her, among which is the report of gambling permitted in the office of Dr. Lickley with his knowledge; using the time of an attendance officer for several days in wiring the house of Dr. Lickley and other purported acts.

Dr. Lickley states that these charges are false and malicious and that the writer had an evil motive, malice and ill-will toward him; that the charges are wicked, wrongful, malicious and with intent and design to injure, disgrace and defame the plaintiff.

Dr. Lickley says he has always enjoyed a good reputation among his neighbors, acquaintances and friends and that the charges are meant to raise in the minds of the readers of the letter the belief that he is a man of questionable and low morality and a violator of the law.

A copy of the complaint and complaint was given to Edgar Cantillon, a process-server, to secure formal service upon Mrs. Bagnall. Mr. Cantillon reported that he found Mrs. Bagnall's house locked and a notice pinned on the door stating that she is out of the city and will not return until next week.

in Long Beach

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Nov. 24.—The first step by city officials and business men to combat the movement for the recall of City Manager Charles E. Hewes, to be voted on at a special election on the 26th inst., was taken tonight when speakers addressed several meetings urging that Hewes be retained.

At Edison School Mayor C. A. Bullum and Councilman George Beck addressed a meeting at Fremont School the speakers were William Cover and Councilman Fillmore Condit; at Burns School former Councilman Helen H. Welch and John N. Forsythe gave talks, and at Roosevelt School the speakers were Councilman Frank A. Downes and former Councilman Charles H. Stanley.

The campaign will continue actively during the next week up to election.

Valentino Sued by Agents
Who Seek Commission for Asserted Service

Redolph Valentino, film actor, whose rise to fame has been punctuated by frequent legal encounters, involving either love or money, was made defendant in another suit yesterday, based on asserted nonpayment of a commission claimed by agents who assert they obtained him a contract with the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

The suit for $15,125 was filed by the Collection Service Corporation in behalf of Clifford Robertson and Eugene Webb, Jr., film contract agents.

The complaint states that the plaintiffs secured Valentino a contract for one year at $1250 a week, with a renewal clause for two years at $2000 weekly, the second year, and $3000 weekly the final year.

Valentino's salary for the entire contract would have amounted to $281,250, had he fulfilled it, according to the complaint, but he is asserted to have deliberately and without cause left the Lasky Company and to have refused to carry out its terms.

The contract was signed on last February 8, and Valentino is asserted to have broken the agreement on October 7 last. No part of the agents' commission has been paid, it is charged. Attorneys Karlilan & Silverton, Schweitzer & Klutton represented the plaintiffs.

Oil Refinery Site Purchased at Long Beach

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, Nov. 24.—Negotiations were closed here today for the purchase of a 154-acre tract in Wilmington as a site for a $300,000 refinery and pipe-line base of the Blue Tank Pipe Line and Refinery Company of Long Beach.

The property is in Blocks One, Two and Three of the Millside tract in Wilmington on the right of way of the Southern Pacific Company. Construction will start immediately, it was announced today by officials of the company. The purchase price of the property was said to be $65,000.

It was stated that the new refinery will be the nucleus of a $5,000,000 corporation owning and operating their own wells in the Signal Hill district, owning pipelines, retail service stations, tank farms and other equipment. The pipe-line is to be of 64-inch capacity, twelve miles long from the central storage farm to the new refinery.

Miss Anna D. Adams
Stepped Out of Doors and Then Vanished

More than three days of unrelenting search have failed to solve the mystery of the disappearance of Anna D. Adams, an elderly Chicagoan, who vanished Tuesday morning on a trip from the home of South Pasadena relatives.

Two weeks ago Miss Adams came here with a sister and they took up their home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Briggs, 1016 Falm Avenue, South Pasadena.

Mr. Briggs is president of the Elita Button Company of this city. On Tuesday morning Miss Adams, who is 58 years old and who is suffering from a nervous affliction, stepped out of the house, and since then no trace of her has been found. Relatives have advertised and hunted high and low, and the police departments of Los Angeles, Pasadena and near-by towns have been aiding in the quest, but in vain.

The description of the missing woman follows: Weight, 150; height, 5 feet 4 inches; wears glasses; blue hat with blue feather; long blue coat; shepherd plaid skirt; striped white silk shirtwaist; one-strap low shoe; black silk stockings; carried valise handbag with monogram A.D.A.; had about $5 in change and gold pocketknife with small diamond setting.

The Briggs family may be reached at phone 831144 or 821725. They are offering a reward for information leading to the finding of the missing woman.

Court Rules Out Woman's Claim to Estate Share

Mrs. Florestina de Gilbert, who was reared as a daughter by Mrs. Susanna Halpin de Pico, and sought to recover a daughter's share of Mrs. De Pico's estate under an asserted promise that the latter would give her the estate, lost her case in Judge Howitt's court yesterday. The court ruled that if any promise had been made to make her Mrs. De Pico's heir, it had not been proven.

Mrs. De Pico married Charles Pico, who had been a sheep herder on the big Halpin ranch. He operated the ranch after his wife's death. About $200,000 was involved in the court action.

EX-CHAPLAIN IS HANGMAN
Iowa Slayer Is Executed at Fort Madison for Murder
(RECEIVED DES MOINES)
FORT MADISON (Iowa) Nov. 24.—Orrie Cross was hanged at 7:30 a.m. today in the walled inclosure at the State prison here where his partner in murder, Eugene Weeks, died ten weeks ago.
The trap was sprung by Sheriff Robb of Polk county, who during the war was chaplain of the Sixteenth infantry overseas and who until recently was pastor of the "Urbantide" Federated Church in Des Moines. Robb also sprang the trap which caused the death of Weeks on September 11.

PLAN LOCAL HUNT CLUB
Santa Anita Rancho, "Lucky" Baldwin Estate, Said to be Site Considered by Angelenos
By a Times Staff Correspondent
PASADENA, Nov. 24.—Plans to turn Santa Anita Rancho, formerly known as the "Lucky" Baldwin ranch, into a hunt club that will rival the famous Piping Rock Club on Long Island, are being discussed by wealthy Angelenos. It was declared here today by Ray D. Stone, a real estate man.
Mr. Stone asserted and is confirmed in part by Edwin Moore, manager of Santa Anita Rancho, that an offer has been made to Mrs. Anita Baldwin for the lease of 1400 acres of the ranch with buildings and the mile riding track, for a country club. The rental offered is said to be about $40,000 a year.
POLO AND GOLF
A polo field would be constructed in the center of the race-track inclosure, and an eighteen-hole golf course laid out. These, with the chase of the antelope, bag and the agile jackrabbit on horseback.

TAKES COUPLE INTO WIGWAM
Wealthy Chief Forgives Daughter and Husband
(BY A. P. KIRBY WIRE)
ARDMORE (Okla.) Nov. 24.—Process servers who have been pursuing Opal Rexroat Kinney, wealthy Choctaw Indian girl and her husband, Ludia Kinney, with varying success for eleven months, have been called off and the bride's father, U. T. Rexroat, who charged Kinney and others with conspiracy to obtain his daughter's money, has taken the pair into his wigwam. It was learned today.

"It's my husband's favorite spread for pancakes"
This husband prefers Milcoa on hot cakes because of its very mild and delicate flavor. The flavor is due to the fact that we get it to you sweet.

"My children like it best"
Children usually do prefer Milcoa, and most mothers prefer to give it to them. They know how nutritious it is.

Read why other women prefer it

"I find I can use it more ways because it's always sweet," said one woman. "My family prefers its flavor and would insist on it even if it cost more," writes another. Others say, "I can always depend on its mild, delicate flavor." "We use it regularly because the quality is always the same."

HERE are just a few of the reasons so many women give for preferring Milcoa. You can realize now why it is becoming so popular; why those who never used it before, even discriminating cooks, now use it exclusively; why every day more families are using it and saving half; why the most intelligent people use it constantly.

"Its flavor is always sweet and delicate," writes a user

That's because we make it by a special formula that produces a mild, delicate flavor unvaryingly.

We never deviate from that formula, regardless of the change in prices of raw materials.

Next, we always make it right in the locality we serve, so it will reach the table sweet.

We have been trying for many years to make Milcoa the perfect spread, and the wisdom of our policy of always supplying a fresh, sweet product is proved by the necessity of a plant right here in Los Angeles to supply the demand for Milcoa.

"How can anything so good be sold so economically?" writes another woman

Many have asked us that. We are always glad to give the answer.

Milcoa is made principally of the pure, wholesome, white meat of the cocoanut. Cocoanuts are not expensive to grow, and the fat of the cocoanut, rich, nutritious and nourishing, is produced and converted into a spread at very much less cost than its expensive alternate.

Don't make the mistake of judging Milcoa by its price. When you use it you save half because it costs just that much less to produce it.

The reason so many are satisfied

Milcoa is an improved, superior quality, a delicious food product, wholesome and nutritious.

Most people use it as a spread for bread, but on account of its mildness and delicacy it is put to more other uses than any other product of its kind. That's because it's always sweet.

A pure vegetable spread is always best when fresh. We speed Milcoa on its way to your table the day it's made. People who visit our modern plant tell us they have never seen such care given to getting a product into the hands of users in a fresh, sweet condition; we invite you to come.

If you ever receive a package from any dealer that isn't sweet, promptly return it, for he is authorized by us to refund the price even if you have used part of it.

"My cakes were never as light and fine"

The good cook knows why; Milcoa is a big help in baking and pastry making because it's sweet when you get it. You know how common it is for cakes and pastry to taste of the shortening; that usually means the fat used was slightly rancid. Milcoa is always sweet.

TRIP TO END PARAMOUNT CONVENTION

Cecil de Mille Tells Delegates How He Will Film Ten Commandments

The Paramount convention closes today with an automobile tour of Southern California, and the delegates are making preparations for their return East.

Yesterday they spent in the Paramount West Coast Studio, learning how it feels to be in motion pictures, in order that they might gain insight into the work-a-day life of the stars when under their control.

They also passed at the industry through the eyes of that all-in-one, but seldom mentioned individual, the cameraman.

Before coming to the studio they listened to an address delivered at the Ambassador by Cecil B. De Mille, director-general of Paramount Pictures. Mr. De Mille devoted the greater part of his address to the plans which he has made for filming the next great production, "The Ten Commandments," the idea of which was chosen recently through a contest in the Times.

His description of what he hoped to do with this superproduction, in which ten of Paramount's leading stars are to appear, created intense enthusiasm, and the delegates left the meeting convinced that this would be the greatest picture ever produced by the Paramount forces.

The automobile tour today included as many of the interesting places in Southern California as it is possible to see in one day, and tomorrow the Paramount delegates will leave for the East and its gentle, winter winds.

Fate of Burch May Rest With Jury on Monday

The defense in the trial of Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Edgar Kennedy on Aug. 5, 1931, will probably complete its arguments Monday, it was indicated yesterday. The case is expected to go to the jury late Monday afternoon after Dep. Dist. Atty. Clark finishes his final argument for the State.

Testimony of witnesses for the State was literally assailed yesterday by Paul Schenck, defense counsel, in his plea to the jury. The story told on the witness stand by Mrs. Elizabeth Burch, star witness for the State, and her husband, Thomas Burch, was subjected to a raking verbal fire by Mr. Schenck.

He declared that the testimony of these two witnesses contained so many physical contradictions that it could not be believed. Mr. Schenck called the jury's attention to the statements of the witnesses for the defense, declaring that they had established a perfect alibi for the accused man. He said that these witnesses had shown conclusively that Burch was in Long Beach at the time of the murder in Beverly Glen.

FILM STARS TO ENLIVEN GUARD BALL

Society Leaders and Heads of Consulates to Attend Regimental Banquet

The great and near great of the film world will turn out en masse at the annual regimental ball next Wednesday evening at the National Guard Armory at Exposition Park under the auspices of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry. Fourteen evening favorites of the silver screen have already pledged themselves to be on hand and aid in enlivening the affair, which gives promise of being one of the most brilliant society events of the season.

The fourteen stars whose presence at the ball is assured are: Charlie Chaplin, Tim Mox, Ruth Hovland, Herbert Hawkinson, William Desmond, Wallace McDonald, Mary Mciver, Doris May, Clara Windsor, Agnes Ayres, Earl Fox, Jed Prouty, Sylvia Brainer and Betty Francisco.

Arrangements for the affair are being rapidly completed by the committee in charge, of which Col. Walter P. Story, in command of the regiment, is chairman. The other two members of the committee are Col. Frank J. Morrow and Lieut.-Col. Harcourt Harvey.

Society leaders of the city will act as patrons and patronesses at the ball, it was announced. The proceeds will be used in equipping and maintaining the armory.

In addition to the film favorites and society leaders, various countries in the city will also be present in full-dress uniform to represent their various countries at the ball. The flags of the countries they represent have been loaned to the committee in charge, and will be used in decorating the armory for the occasion.

Mayor Cryer, a former member of the regiment, has also come to the aid of the committee, urging the public to unite in giving its whole-hearted support to the regiment.

Last Rites Are Said for Club Woman Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara B. Neal, wife of Laird L. Neal of 410 South Burlington avenue, were held yesterday at 3 p.m. in the chapel at Tenth and Flower streets in charge of the Rev. E. Burdette Backus. Mrs. Neal died Tuesday. Mrs. Neal was a member of the Woman's Alliance, Unity Club, Republican Study Club and First Unitarian Church of this city and of Brookland Church, O.R.W. of Washington, D.C. She was born in Seneca Falls, N.Y., and lived here since 1914, coming from Chattanooga, Tenn., where she was a resident many years. She leaves her mother, Mrs. Barbara Nelson Baker, two sisters, Electa E. and Margaret M. Baker of Los Angeles, and a brother, Daniel D. Baker of Chattanooga. Burial was at Forest Lawn.

OCCIDENTAL AND POMONA IN ANNUAL STRUGGLE FOR GRID SUPREMACY

CONFERENCE TITLE AT STAKE THIS AFTERNOON

Football Rivals to Renew Feud of Long Standing on Patterson Field

BY JOE PUNT
Occidental and Pomona meet at Patterson Field, Eagle Rock, this afternoon, in a continuation of the annual combat of the Southern California's oldest gridiron classic. And as on dozens of previous occasions, the Southern California Conference football championship is at stake. Two teams fighting for a title with years of importance to spur them on. What more could any football team want?

HOW TO REACH OXY GRIDIRON

Patterson Field is the athletic grounds of Occidental College.
From Los Angeles go out North Broadway to Avenue 20, then left on Avenue 20 over the San Fernando Road to the Verdugo Road, then turn right to Glassell avenue, thence right to Occidental; or follow Pasadena avenue to Avenue 54, thence north to York Boulevard and west to the college.
From Hollywood the best road to proceed is Vermont—north on Vermont avenue and over the Los Falls Road to San Fernando Boulevard, thence left to Verdugo Road, thence to Glassell avenue and Patterson Field.
From Glendale the best route is to follow Colorado to Eagle Rock, thence south on Central avenue to Occidental College.
From Pasadena, motorists have a choice of going by way of Eagle Rock, thence south on Central avenue to the college—or via Fair Oaks to Mission street in South Pasadena, thence over Pasadena avenue to York Boulevard, thence due west to the college.

Several years ago the "Princeton" of the West, Occidental, was the only team in the West that could stand up to the "Princeton" of the East, Harvard. They have followed the same methods in winning the championship. They have followed the same methods in winning the championship. They have followed the same methods in winning the championship.

1:45 promptly. Patterson Field is expected to be jammed to capacity by a crowd of 15,000 or more.

STANFORD WARRIORS AWAIT BRUINS

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 24.—Everything is set for the greatest slaughter of innocents in the history of Pacific Coast football. Graduate Manager Fletcher has the Stanford Stadium in beautiful condition with newly planted green grass covering the exterior of the huge embankment, and with the fifteen months' old turf, broken only by the outlines of the recently completed track oval, requires only the presence of some fifty odd thousands of spectators in the sixty-five rows of seats to complete the stage on which eleven murderous Bears will enter for the final killing of their career tomorrow.
WILL BE STRONGER
Coach Kerr says his team will start against the Bears several notches stronger than it has at any time this season. Only Capt. DeGroot is missing from the Cardinals eligible list. Rex Doughty and Wilcox, halfbacks, will be in the game together for the first time in several weeks, and the co-operation in the greatest thing about the Stanford backfield. Even with DeGroot absent, the Stanford line will be stronger from end to end than previously. Lawson and Mertz, ends, Shipkey and Johnston, tackles, Houck and Faville, guards, Baker center, will be the combination. Faville may replace Baker, with Houck coming in at the former's guard.
IN BACK FIELD
Woodward, quarter, Halfbacks Wilcox and Doughty, and Fullback Cuddihy will start in the backfield. Cleveland, who went better against Washington than Cuddihy, will get a real opportunity at full, and Kerr may be depended on to use Dennis, Murray and Wheat interchangeably with the regular backs in a way that will get out of them the best they have to give.
Much depends on the breaks in the early part of the game. If these fakes do not go against the Cardinals, who might thus be able to hold for a quarter or more, their morale would be strengthened so greatly that they might hold until the final gun.

HIGH SCHOOLS IN A TIE GAME

Redlands and Pomona Play Snappy Contest
Grid Championship is Still Upsticks Affair

Neither Team Has Lost a Title This Year

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
ONTARIO, Nov. 24.—The football championship of the Citrus Belt League was still undetermined this evening, following this afternoon's game between Redlands and Pomona High Schools on the Chaffey High Athletic Field, which resulted in a tie 6 to 6.
The two schools were tied for the championship before today's game. Neither school had met defeat during the present season and in their first game together tied 0 to 0.
Although the Redlands team outplayed Pomona today, the latter team succeeded in scoring first. Pomona got the ball on a fumble and Bishop of Pomona made a 50-yard run to a touchdown, which was not converted. This was in the third quarter.
Redlands made its touchdown shortly after the fourth quarter opened through a series of passes and line plunges, working its way steadily down the field from the start.
Redlands shortly afterward got the ball on a Pomona fumble and after a hard-line fight made a second touchdown, but lost out on the score when a Redlands' man was declared off side and they were penalized 5 yds. Redlands then tried a place kick, but failed and the score remained 6 to 6 until the end with neither side threatening seriously.

At the opening of the game, fans decided it was to be Redlands' victory, the San Bernardino county aggregation several times threatening to score and very apparently outplaying the Pomona team. The latter was somewhat handicapped, however, in the loss of Ovington, their star halfback, who was absent on account of illness.
Weather the league championship will be determined in conference on another attempt made to play off the tie had not been determined tonight.
The line-up in today's game was as follows:

POET QUINTET TRIMS CRESCENT HOOPSTERS

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
WHITTIER, Nov. 24.—The basketball quintet of Whittier College defeated the fast Crescent five, 39 to 28, after a fast game played here tonight. Both teams played fast and furious all the way and much good floor work was evidenced. Ransom was the whole cheese for the winners, while E. McNew looked like a million for the Crescent. The line-ups:

DENIES CHANCE HAS BECOME SOX MOGUL

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Frank Chance has bought no interest in the Red Sox. H. H. Frases, said tonight in denying a report from the Pacific Coast that the former manager of the Chicago Cubs and the New York Yankees had obtained an interest in the club and would manage the team next year. The Red Sox owner said Chance could buy none, as there was none for sale. Frases added he had been negotiating with Chance and Bill Carrigan to manage his club, but no decision had been reached.

DEMSEY GIVEN HANDSOME OFFER

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
MEMPHIS (Tenn.), Nov. 24.—An offer of $1,000,000 for a series of three matches with Jack Dempsey was made tonight by Al H. Woods, New York theatrical promoter, to Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, and was conditionally accepted. Kearns, who is in Memphis, announced tonight. Dempsey's opponents and the place of holding the matches are to be decided later. Kearns said, although he added that in a long-distance telephone conversation with Woods, a mixed match with "Strangler" Lewis was discussed.

FIRST GAME IN PLAY-OFF TO COYOTES

Fear's Long Runs Spell Defeat for Owensmouth's Grid Eleven

The Coyotes ran true to form yesterday and reverted to type, when the Bishop Coyotes ran away from the Owensmouth footballers in the first game of the play-off for the Southern California title, which was staged on the Tomato Pickers' field, and won the squabble, 16 to 7. A pair of touchdowns in the first quarter had the fans wildly excited before they had hardly reached their seats, but there was no more line crossing until the middle of the third canto.
Bishop was penalized time after time for holding the man, not seeming to know that there was a rule against it. The majority of the breaks went to Bishop, however, as they intercepted a large number of passes when the receiver had a clear field. Twice Fear, the Coyotes' right halfback, carried the ball for more than 50 yards on intercepted passes. One run netted a touchdown in the third quarter when the little sprinter took the ball through a somewhat broken field for a total of 70 yards.
The first Bishop touchdown was made on a fake back after the ball had been put on the 20-yard line. The goal was converted by the same manner of play, the ball being rushed over before the astounded Owensmouth team could wake up. Owensmouth made a 25-yard pass and a place kick, which netted the only scores. Bishop's safety was scored on a blocked kick in the third quarter when a Green and White man fell on the oval behind his goal.
Little "Tige" Graves, 125-pound halfback of the Owensmouth team, played a game that took his opponents off their feet, while Harworth's end runs, and Breakstead's end runs made large gains. Rehm, Deby and Elias starred for the winners.

It is just as important to know what it is.
Anything that makes you think is a mistake that makes you money.
Some men are generous for the sake of generosity. They give them something to know that.
It seems all right to pass a bad day.
